Academic Integrity

Provide targeted training to facilitate a consistent and unified approach to academic integrity in your institution – ensuring clarity and confidence among both staff and students.

About Epigeum

Epigeum is a leading provider of online courses that support the core activities of universities and colleges in four areas: teaching and development, research, studying, and support and wellbeing.

Developed through a unique process of global collaboration between world-class subject experts, partner institutions, and in-house specialists, Epigeum's interactive, online courses make consistent, cost-effective training achievable for all.

Structure of Academic Integrity

Programme structure   5 staff-facing modules and 5 student-facing modules
Core activities   2 hours, 30 mins (students) and 3 hours (staff)
Additional content   15 hours (students) and 10 hours (staff)

Staff-facing modules	Student-facing modules
What is academic integrity?	What is academic integrity?
Promoting a culture of academic integrity	How do I show academic integrity in my preparation?
Identifying and responding to breaches of academic integrity	How do I show academic integrity in my work?
Teaching, learning and assessment: implications for academic integrity	How can I feel more confident about academic integrity?
Assessment design choices for academic integrity	How do I deal with more complex situations?

Contributors

Lead Advisor   Associate Professor Tracey Bretag
Based in the School of Management at the University of South Australia
Authors   Dr Lee Adam (University of Otago, New Zealand)
Dr Ann Rogerson (University of Wollongong, Australia)
Dr Rowena Harper (University of South Australia, Australia)
Dr Thomas Lancaster (Imperial College London, UK)
Michelle Picard (Newcastle University, Australia)
Dr Julia Miller (University of Adelaide, Australia)

OXFORD
UNIVERSITY PRESS   epigeum

www.epigeum.com

Audience

- Undergraduate students
- Teaching staff
- Educational development staff
- Professional administrative staff

Overview of the Academic Integrity programme

Developed in collaboration with over twenty higher education institutions, Academic Integrity is an interactive, multidisciplinary programme that facilitates a consistent and unified approach to academic integrity training.

With content tailored to students at various stages of their studies, as well as members of staff, the programme explores areas such as contract cheating, assessment design and group work – helping to promote a robust, institution-wide culture of academic integrity.

Key benefits of the programme

- Provide targeted training in key areas, with interactive modules tailored to both teaching and professional staff, and students across all disciplines, facilitating a holistic, long-term, and institution-wide approach to academic integrity
- Instil positive values, skills and behaviours via clear explanations, multimedia content, and interactive activities – providing strategies for evidencing integrity in all aspects of learners' work, and preparing students for professional life post-university
- Explore best practice and its real-life applications via video interviews with students and staff, a rich variety of complex, realistic scenarios, and plenty of practical advice
- Encourage reflection on common challenges and dilemmas, as well as consideration of different experiences, using engaging animations, comic strips and polls
- Thoroughly address key issues, such as contract cheating and assessment design, from both a student and staff perspective – exploring the full implications of these activities for all learners

Included in your Asset Pack:

- Introductory PowerPoint
- Suggestions for social media copy, images & GIFs
- A4 Promotional Flyers
- Digital adverts
- Web banners
- Gallery of course artwork